

Look for these stories in Googolplex, on your credit union's web site in October, November, and December.

Social Security for Our Generation?

Former Googolplex youth editorial board member Ryan Wannamaker tells his high-school peers, "If you think Social Security just involves old people, and that FICA is a name of a plant, you haven't been paying too much attention!" He writes about the potential Social Security crisis, and says, "Don't worry; it's not too late to get ahead in the game."

Cell Phones: Get What You Need

Cell phones have tons of features including text messaging, cameras and graphics. Cell phone users can send files and check their e-mail. But this new technology has its pitfalls. Author Cass Heckman shows you how to get the cell phone with the features and technology you need.

Look for these games in Googolplex, on your credit union's web site.

Dream On

You've been nodding off in class again. If you're not getting anything out of the lecture, you should at least try to listen to that subconscious voice in your head. What do your dreams mean? There are some common dream interpretations that many experts agree on. Think you can analyze like the experts? Dream on.

Future Freshmen

College. Welcome to the first day of the rest of your academic life. As a soon-to-be freshman you're beginning to make serious decisions about your future. Before you call those shots, however, you may want to get re-acquainted with someone: Yourself. Complete the Googolplex questionnaire and we'll tell you what you reveal!

GOOD COP, BAD COP

After a particularly unruly day at C-Note University, campus police officers have brought nine students to justice. The perpetrators have each committed a unique crime. Based on the police notes and sketchy information, determine which student committed what violation. Do you have the detective skills to send these students up the river?

WHEELS™

Words: Mike Baron; Art: Gabe Eltaeb

CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE